LAS VEGAS (KLAS) - Investigators with the Nevada Gaming Control Board have accused a Las Vegas baccarat dealer of cheating to benefit a player and receive tips, court documents said.

In June 2020, a gaming investigator received a complaint from The STRAT Hotel & Casino about the dealer, Ying Yu, and a potential incident of dumping. A casino manager had asked for a review of Yu's tips from two days "due to the amount she received," investigators wrote in court documents.

Metro police pulled over a driver who was in a vehicle registered in Yu's name on Tuesday, they said.
