WinStar Social Casino

The prospect of California gambling online in general, and online casinos in California in particular, appears to be as far away as ever.

The exact mix of games will vary from brand to brand, but you should expect to find the following categories of casino game available.

Poker in California Poker in California is based in the state's card rooms and tribal casinos, offering plenty of places to play card games.

The newest of which is Hard Rock Hotel & Casino Sacramento at Fire Mountain, which opened in late 2019.

The promotional messaging around those games could be misleading. Implied odds and true odds are important in determining if you are making a bet that has good value.

The implied probability of this spread bet winning would be 52.

If that same outcome has a true probability of 52.

38% or higher, then you would want to take that bet.

Since the same odds are offered for the Bills to win, the implied probability for the Bills to win are 43.

What can you do with this information?

If you have a predictive model and it gives the Titans a win probability of 65%, then betting on the Titans would be a good bet.
