[Instagram] For starters, the sport is very interesting.
  There are thousands of people who are on the field to play.
    [Instagram] There are a lot of topics about race, race, class.
[Instagram] There's a lot of discussion about the fact that black people are the majority in America.
    [Instagram] There's lots of discussion about race, racism, class.
    [Instagram] But also some of it is pretty hilarious.
[Instagram] So far, it's played more than 10 million times and counting.

There's no doubt that it takes perseverance to make it big on TikTok.
While we can't verify annual incomes, Addison Rae -- who rose to fame by dan cing on TikTok -- reportedly earns in the neighborhood of $5 million annually. S isters Charli and Dixie D' Amelio are not far behind, with incomes estimated to be $4 million and $2.9 million, respectively. Like Addison Rae, the sisters g rew a fan base by posting dance videos.
So, how do they do it, these new social media stars?
Be at least 18 years of age
Have a minimum of 100,000 video views in the last 30 days
To give you a sense of how long the average creator might take to earn money thr ough the TikTok Creator Fund, every 1,000 views makes the creator between $0.02 and $0.04. That means a creator with a video viewed 1 million times can expect a n extra $20 to $40 in the bank.
Those making millions are doing more. Here are three other ways the big names ha ve become big names:
 3. Harnessing the power of a media personality
